RACIAL JUSTICE RESOURCES FOR PUBLIC DEFENDERS

RESOURCES COMPILED BY NLADA FOR ITS RACE EQUITY ADVOCACY NETWORK

AUGUST 2020

Resources on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion for Public Defender Offices:

NLADA's Racial Justice Action Plan released in 2018 commits NLADA and its members to: (1) speak with clarity about poverty and racial equity; (2) improve our internal governance to reflect the racial equity we seek to secure in our communities; and (3) support a purpose-driven practice that employs strategic advocacy to advance racial justice in our communities.

NLADA's Fight Against Implicit Bias and Racial Inequality (FAIR) Pledge, developed by our Client Policy Group. The FAIR Pledge calls upon every equal justice advocate and organization to confront implicit bias, improve capacity to effectively serve clients and positively advance racial justice.

NLADA's Diversity & Inclusion Sections: Click for information on the Latino Advocates (Civil and Defender), Native American Law (Civil and Defender), African American Project Directors Association, and Black Public Defender Association.

W.K. Kellogg Foundation's Truth, Racial Healing and Transformation Summit has a series of guides that you can develop for your office and work on different topics, including the law, changing the narrative, racial healing, and separation.
